
Update Master

The Update Master Command will import the current text from the subdocuments into the Master document. This will only bring in the latest saved changes. You should always do this when you first open up a master document. Just click the button and then save your document so that you have the latest changes.

