
Deleting RFP References

The delete button was created for removing the RFP requirements when going final. This button is on the Master View ribbon and should only be used after the final Color Review. You should delete the RFP references and not just hide them prior to sending them to your client.

TIP: Most of the ribbon commands will not let you perform an “UNDO”, however this command will let you perform an “UNDO”. But only if you haven’t Saved the document.